Library Furnishings Fund Drive Underway

With construction of the new Belle Glade Public Library well under way, the Woman's Club of Belle Glade is continuing its drive to raise money for the furnishings of the library. The Library Board needs to have the money in hand as soon as possible so that the furnishings may be ordered early enough to be delivered by early March, the time set for the completion of the new building. Several months must be allowed for advertisement of bids and delivery of the furnishings.

Mrs. J. A. Winchester, chairman of the Library Fund Drive Committee, announced that the goal for the drive is $25,000, the amount estimated by the Belle Glade Library Board as necessary to furnish the new facility. Of this amount, $7,500 has been realized including $5,000 from a library fund started by the City Commission in 1964, plus $2,500 raised by various local organizations during the past year.

Other members of the committee include Mrs. Wm. Rhodes, Mrs. Marvin Ustin, Mrs. F. C. Dooley, Mrs. Wm. Thibaut, Mrs. E. M. McDaniel, and Mrs. Sam Knight Sr., Woman's Club President. The Woman's Club will be assisted in the drive by representatives from most of the local civic organizations.

All local businesses and many individuals will be contacted. (Continued On Page 12)

People Make Hospitals, Rotarians Told

Hospitals are not brick and mortar and expensive equipment, but they are people, Rotarians were told at the regular weekly meeting at the Civic Center last Friday.

Ben Clarke, administrator of the Glades General Hospital, who spoke to the civic group had high praise for the staff at the local hospital. Specifically he paid tribute to the board of trustees whose many hours of work behind the scenes usually go unnoticed.

Clarke gave a report on the hospital activities for the past year and said the facility needed and deserved the continued support of the leaders of the community.

The Belle Glade Lions Club will launch its annual light bulb sale on Monday evening, according to James Goza, chairman of the bulb sale committee.

The sale is held each year to raise funds for the club's sight conservation program which is the major project of the local civic organization. The goal is $1,000 this year.

Members will meet at the Civic Center for a luncheon at 5:30 p. m.

Monday and afterwards will go from house to house selling bulbs. The chairman said the members expected to knock on every door in Belle Glade.

A make-up night for the sale will be held, Goza said, for those who can not make it Monday night but the exact date will be announced later.

Goza issued an appeal for all members to be present for the sale Monday. He also expressed his appreciation to members for their cooperation in the project.

Tall Pines Removed

Approximately 80 tall pine trees along the route to the Glades General Hospital have been removed to assure the accessibility to the hospital during stormy weather.

The trees were ordered removed last Saturday as hurricane Inez threatened the area with high winds. The removal of the trees was requested by County Commissioner E. W. Weaver.

The cutting of the trees, some of which were 60 feet high, was supervised by Charles Maxson, road and bridges superintendent of District 2.

Workers removed the 80 trees in a 9-hour period. Assisting in the project were Mayor-Commissioner Bill J. Bailey and Police Chief Charles D. Goodlett.

Trees were originally planted as a buffer for the canals of the area but have grown to such heights that breaking limbs during high winds have proven to be traffic hazards.

Several traffic delays were reported during the winds caused by hurricane Inez.

Water System Application Approve by FHA

The application of the South Shore Water Association for funds to construct a water system serving the rural area between South Bay and Clewiston has been approved by the Farm and Home Administration.

Before a contract can be let it is necessary for the organization to have contracts signed and connection charges paid in by 161 prospective members. Contracts can be signed at Baldree's Market in Hookers Point and Nippers Grocery in Lake Harbor.

It is hoped that a sufficient number of contracts will be signed to permit the letting of contracts as soon as the engineering work is completed about October 15.

C. A. Thomas and Ed Watson, president and secretary of the organization, interested users to assist in getting all residents to sign up as soon as possible.

Roth Renamed To FFVA Group

Ray R. Roth of Belle Glade has been re-elected vice-chairman of the leaf and radish committee of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association for the 1966-67 year.

Billy Rogers of South Bay is a holdover director of the association for District 3.

Beautification Group Sets Meet

The beautification committee will meet tonight to hear nominations for officers of the committee for next year, according to Dr. Donald Fliels, chairman. The meeting will be held at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Outlook for vegetable and other crops in the Glades area has been described as favorable by growers in the area.

The first harvesting of the fall and winter crops was begun this week when the first crop of radishes were received by the Sam Senter Farms Inc., and the Lakeshore Growers Coop., Inc., packing houses.

There have been reports that the first sweet corn of the season would be ready for shipping to market Friday of this week. Spokesman from Pioneer Growers Co-op and W. H. Vann and Co., Pahokee, reports the corn crop prospects.

The first crop of radishes received by the two packing houses were reported to have been produced on the Hechler Farms on the Hillsborough plantation and Senter's farm off Hatten Highway.

Ray Roth who will market his radishes through the South Bay cowers is expected to have some produce ready by Friday.

There have been heavy plantings of celery and corn, it was reported. The celery crop is not expected to be ready for harvesting until the last week of October or the first of November.

Early plantings of sweet corn, both white and yellow varieties, are expected to show heavy production by October 15. Growers of the Pahokee area are expected to be ready to ship sweet corn next week or shortly thereafter.

Most of the growers who ship leafy vegetables are also reporting a favorable outlook for an early season, if the winds and rains that usually accompany tropical storms do not hit the area.

Sugar cane growers report their forthcoming crops "look real good." The cane appears to be healthy and the sucrose content is expected to rise as cooler weather comes to the area.

Barring a freeze and hurricane activity, indications are for one of the best crops in years, veteran growers said.

Growers are awaiting word from the U. S. Department of Labor as to how many off-shore workers will be permitted to work in the area. All the cane in the Glades area is harvested by hand by imported laborers.

Majority of the celery growers will use mechanical harvesters in gathering their crops.

Safety And Beautification

During the past two weeks, two groups in Belle Glade have resumed activities which are very vital to the future of Belle Glade and the surrounding area.

These groups are the beautification committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Canal Hazards Safety Committee. Both groups have already been involved in activities which have meant much to the area.

The beautification committee under the leadership of Dr. Don Fieles will be joined with the city improvement committee of the Belle Glade Lions Club in the junk car problem. The committee will soon meet to outline projects for next year.

Belle Glade is a friendly community with many attractive spots and a continued beautification program could make the community one of the most attractive to be found anywhere.

The safety unit has already brought about measures which have made motoring in the area much safer. Under the leadership of George LeBron Williams, this committee is undertaking more projects for safer driving in the area. Among these is the promotion of a four-lane highway between Belle Glade and West Palm Beach.

With safer highways along the canals in the area and with these canals and other areas beautified, our community could well become "the city beautiful."

These committees and the projects they undertake deserve the support and assistance of all our citizens.

Views Of Other Editors

ST. MARYS, PA., PRESS: "When we attended school many years ago we were taught the Republic of United States was a government of the people, by the people and for the people. Today we are getting further and further away from the original meaning. . . . Once we lose our small government, we might just as well kiss most of our liberties good-bye and resign ourselves to the same conditions the people in Russia live under. We are getting closer each day with all the agencies the government is now controlling, such as welfare, social security, medicare, etc. And you are paying for it, because it is taken from your paycheck before you even see it, let alone get your hands on it."

SHELBY, MONT., PROMOTER: "It's to the United States' interest to work for a paved highway link to strategically-located Alaska, a state with vast untapped economic resources. A paved highway also will tend to unite us even more closely with . . . Canada. Canada also will benefit from a paved highway that will help develop the rich resources of her western provinces."

WYNNIE, ARK., PROGRESS: "It takes two persons to pass a fraudulent check, the one who gives it and the one who receives it. . . . Law enforcement officials are continually amazed at the gullibility of people who are otherwise extremely shrewd. They will take a large check from a total stranger, forget to ask for any identification, make no note of the person's appearance and are as innocent as a babe when the officials begin asking for information to help catch the culprit."

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, MINN., JOURNAL: "We have not reached the point of Dickens' England, when no one dared walk the streets of London without bodgards and torchbearers. But the streets of our cities are unsafe for many today. Just as England broke the grip of 18th century criminals, so the United States today must find a way to reverse the crime statistics and restore safety and peace in the streets."

Speak With Conviction

If news reports can be taken at face value, government and industry have enjoyed a relationship during the past year or so that has been widely publicized as a friendly partnership. Businessmen generally appear to have had a warm welcome in Washington, but now a different story may be developing.

A late issue of U. S. News & World Report contains a feature story which raises the question of whether the end of the government's "honeymoon" with business is in sight. It quotes from interviews with a number of leading business and industrial leaders and as might be expected there is rising dissatisfaction and concern with government policies relating to taxation, inflation and the war in Viet Nam. In the words of U. S. News & World Report, "It found widely differing opinions, and a desire often not to be quoted if opinions were critical."

About the only comment that can be made on this is that if big government, which is now spending for goods and services at the rate of $74 billion a year, has reached the point where its influence is so vast that businessmen do not wish to be quoted on important matters of public policy, the future of freedom under representative government is indeed bleak.

The answer to the problem may be found in the words of an economist quoted by U. S. News & World Report: "The partnership theme has been overworked. In the future, industry will not fight government as much as it will try to outdo it and compete in solution of economic problems. The emphasis will be not just on profits, but also on public service. This, really, is contemporary capitalism."

Whether we have contemporary capitalism or old-fashioned capitalism, there will always be a need for leaders of business to speak with conviction on important issues.

KATZENBACH AT STATE

President Johnson's nomination of Atty. Gen. Nicholas deB. Katzenbach as No. 2 man in the State Department is likely to produce a further decline in public confidence in the administration's handling of foreign policy.

Mr. Katzenbach was first brought into government by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, at the time the latter was Attorney General. First as assistant to Bobby Kennedy and later as Attorney General under the Johnson administration, he has used his powers to ride roughshod over the rights of the states. Moreover, Mr. Katzenbach has failed to take any decisive action against the communist front groups that have been active in opposing the war in Viet Nam. The communists have been waging a virtual war on the home front, but Mr. Katzenbach has not attempted to root out the Reds involved in the protests or master-minding the demonstrations.

During this past summer, there also has been a virtual war directed at American cities in the Middle West. Terrorist groups have been behind many of the outbreaks of arson, looting and sniper action. In Cleveland, Ohio, a grand jury submitted a report that left-wing insurgents were behind the riots in that city. But Mr. Katzenbach dismissed the grand jury report. He blamed the riots on general social ills and said the community had to do more to help those whom he depicted as downtrodden. In short, Mr. Katzenbach sees no evil on the city riot front or on the anti Viet Nam demonstration front. Such a man, Americans may legitimately conclude, is unfitted to occupy the second-ranking post of the U. S. State Department.

Can Mr. Katzenbach be trusted to take a hard line against communists in Europe or Asia when he has a record of being disinclined to take a tough stand against communists in the cities and protest groups of America? The answer has to be in the negative.

Indeed the public cannot forget Mr. Katzenbach's long and close association with the Kennedys. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy is a critic of the armed struggle against communism in Viet Nam. Every time the U. S. takes a tough action against communist North Viet Nam, Sen. Kennedy finds fault with American toughness. The U. S. public would be naive indeed if it did not conclude that Mr. Katzenbach will be influenced by the Kennedy line on international affairs.

At the same time that Mr. Johnson announced the nomination of Mr. Katzenbach, he disclosed that Prof. Eugene V. Rostow, former law dean at Yale University and a veteran foe of liberal and advocate of massive foreign aid programs, would become Undersecretary of State for Political Affairs. Prof. Rostow's equally liberal brother, Walt Whitman Rostow, already serves as chairman of the powerful State Department Policy Planning Council. Just why the U. S. needs the services of two Rostows in the State Department has not been explained. But the appointment of Prof. Rostow should go far to appease the radical elements in the universities who are afraid that the United States military effort may edge the country toward a victory policy.

Uncle Sam From Doolittle Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fella at the country store Saturday night was holding their semi-annual session on the women folks. It got started when Ed Doolittle said he had saw this piece where some fella got a sulenut of his marriage by claiming his wife never was legal separated from her first husband. And Ed reported the woman hauled off and used the man for $20,100 for keeping house 17 year.

Zeke Grubb was of the opinion this fella got off cheap, said he had saw where some big bank had made a study and found out a wife was worth $2,285 a year. The storekeeper done some quick figuring and come up with $140,845 this fella owed for 17 year.

Ed allowed as how we got off on the wrong foot when we give women the vote in 1920. Now, he claimed, they was more winning votes than men and we got 13 women in the Congress.

Clem Webster reported about reading this piece in the papers where a woman lawyer had made a good living for 30 year out of divorces. She claimed the only thing hurting her business was love. She said it was hard to make a success of divorce when two people was in love. Ed was of the opinion that actual they was more money in the marrying business than in the divorce end of it. He said he had saw where a justice of the peace in Nevada had married 5,000 couples in the last 18 months for $5 a pair. The storekeeper run off some fast figgers on that one and we was all agreed the marriage business was good.

The storekeeper was complaining that women kept the value of everything out of balance. For instance, he reported, he had saw where the average price paid for them beekies was $16 and they weighed a average of 8 ounces. When 8 ounces of cheap cloth gits to selling for $16, he perdicted a ordinary suit of clothes for a man would hit the $350 mark afore it was all over. Furthermore, he said he had saw where the women in this country used 80,000 miles of lipstick ever year and sooner or later this would run the price of house paint sky high.

Bug Hookum said he had saw where a Congressman from New York was trying to git a bill passed that would give the husband alimony if the wife had plenty of money. He figgered them 13 women in the Congress would shore kill that one.

The fella was giving the women folks a hard time Saturday night, Mister Editor, but I didn't take no part in it. I can still recollect 40 year ago when me and my old lady went to our first church picnic. The woman won the rolling pin throwing contest and her husband won the 100 yard dash.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

OUR READERS WRITE US FROM ROME, ITALY

Sept. 28, 1966

Dear Kathleen,
We all still read the Belle Glade Herald with avid interest, and of course "home to us."

I thought it would be of interest to relate where the children are attending schools in Rome, for their many friends. Pat, Loyola University of Chicago, Rome Branch, Michèle, Overseas Int'l. School of Rome, Jackie, Notre Dame School for Boys.

Pat is attending the October Fest this week end in Munich, Germany in conjunction of the school travel program.

We have been having beautiful fall weather here in Rome.

We enjoyed reading the travels of Mrs. Wedgworth and her companion, and had just returned from seeing "Pisa" as ever.

On our return home, we picked up the B. G. paper and read of their travel to "Pisa" also. Imagine! Quite true, beauty everywhere you look. Not a news item, but I attended a luncheon of the American Women's Club at the Hilton Hotel and the guest speaker was Morris L. West, author of the "Shoes of the Fisherman", which I now possess and autographed copy.

However, he was there in reference to his most recent book. Kathleen, if you come this way, it would be a pleasure to have you as our guest. Do tell Mrs. Verda Mathewson the same and a hello to all. She is doing a tremendous job in carrying on the paper.

Sincerely,
Kay Fisher and family

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Belle Glade Herald
Belle Glade, Fla.
Dear Editor:

Last Feb. 22 the National Council of Churches in St. Louis adopted a far left program by calling for admission of Red China to the United Nations and the granting of U. S. diplomatic recognition of the Peking regime. For this proposal the National Council of Churches was given the proverbial Black Eye, as being a far left organization.

Dr. Daniel Poling, a protestant minister for 50 years, conducted an independent survey asking nearly 30,000 Protestant Ministers about Red China. The following are the results:

Admission of Red China to the United Nations 25.6% for 72.9% against.

To expel Nationalist China and admit Red China to the U. N. 2.9% for; 93.7% against.

Recognition of Red China, 25.8% for; 71.4% against. For a long time the N. C. C. has been sounding off about politics, social practices and other controversial subjects of a purely secular nature, but no one could tell where the N. C. C. got its authority. It surely didn't come from the Lord; too many good Christians disagreed with the N. C. C. proclamations so it didn't come from the congregations but did in fact come from a very small minority of the nation's Protestant ministers. At least we can view the N. C. C. in proper respect as an organization with a majority name and a minority voice.

I believe that the clergy members should do a little housekeeping or at least have all official policies stated by the group that represents the majority. The minority members are entitled to speak their opinions. However we should hear in mind that they are not truly representative of the majority.

Time To Pray For Our Nation?

By Lewis Llewellyn

The defeat in the Senate of the proposed "voluntary prayer" amendment to the constitution came only a few days after the release of the uniform crime report which shows that crimes of violence have again increased in our nation.

The Dirksen amendment would have made it clear that it is lawful for children to pray in school if they want to. The measure received a majority vote in the Senate — 49 to 37 — but this was nine votes short of the two-thirds majority required for passage of amendments to the constitution.

Dirksen says he will continue to press for favorable action on this amendment, planning to bring it up again next year with support of more senators.

IS AMENDMENT NEEDED?

Some feel that it is better to let the constitution stand as it is, with the prohibition against the establishment of religion by legislative action, as well as the prohibition against interference with the free exercise of religion.

Others feel that the Supreme Court has interfered with the free exercise of religion, by its interpretation of the constitution, and that the amendment is needed to clarify the meaning of the first amendment.

"That action is needed to restore something which is lacking in our national life seems apparent. Every year the crime rate continues to advance five or six times as fast as the growth in population. Juvenile delinquency is plaguing small towns, as well as large cities.

Dr. Fredric Wertham psychiatrist, says that violence is contagious and that it has permeated our society. He states that the children of the nation are being "schoolized in violence," with crime comics as the text-books and television as the instructor.

Before dismissal this notion as being too far-fetched, let us note that television is being used in our schools as an instructional medium. Someday, the men who have taught violence to our children may be held accountable for the dreadful results of their "entertainment."

CAN'T EVADE RESPONSIBILITY

Some day, parents who have allowed their children to fill their minds with thoughts of violence, crime, lust, and passion may come to realize that there is a parental responsibility for the spiritual welfare of our children which cannot be abdicated.

Perhaps this would be a good time for us to remind ourselves of the scripture verse which President Eisenhower quoted in his first inaugural address.

This is what the president quoted from the word of the Lord: "If My people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

It is time to heed this suggestion?

Never hesitate to turn your footsteps — or your thoughts — toward God's house. Find your comfort in faith.

The lace panel controlled skirt, featured a detachable court train. A crown of re-embroidered alencon lace highlighted in a design of crystals and seed pearls, held in place the ballerina length veil of imported silk illusion. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, and she carried a cascade of white tiera roses, with pearl leaves and English ivy.

Mrs. Ken Perkins, matron of honor, wore a floor length gown of autumn gold and bronze orange brocade fashioned with a princess bodice. Her veil, gloves and shoes were autumn bronze orange. She carried a cascade of Gloriosa lilies backed with miniature dresina leaves.

Clothing Workshop For Leaders

Leaders of the Extension Homemakers Clubs will hold a clothing workshop Friday, October 7, at the Mounts Building. These leaders will have a chance to try basic muslin in miss-woman, junior, half size, teen, sub-teen, junior petite, chubby and girl sizes. Mrs. Kyle Lee Williams, President of the Extension Homemakers County Council, will be in charge of the workshop. She will show the typical figure types pointing out the differences in height, figure development, bust placement, shoulders and armholes.

Each leader will have a chance to determine her correct pattern type of size. Each will take her own measurements of bust, waist, hip and back waist length and record them on a personal measurement chart. They will each have a chance to decide on alterations that may be needed in the basic muslin that is nearest their individual size.

It will be stressed that these alterations should be made in any pattern they use before cutting the fabric. By starting with the right type and size pattern, dressmaking is far easier as there is much less fitting to do. These leaders will take this information back to their local Extension Homemakers Clubs throughout the county.

Peggy Smith Announces Attendants

Miss Peggy Marlene Smith, whose marriage to Edward Neil Fountain will take place October 8, has announced her attendants for her wedding. The ceremony will be Saturday at 4 P. M. at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. C. H. Eiland officiating.

The reception will follow the ceremony in the social hall of the church. All friends of the couple are invited.

The table was covered with antique satin cream cloth, centered with a lovely arrangement composed of a 10 branch silver candelabra trimmed with fern and a cupid on either side holding white tiera roses and fern. Palms were used about the hall.

Guests attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Townsend, West Palm Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Judson Francis, Ft. Myers; Walter Parker, Pahokee; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. "Sophomores Acknowledge Football Players"

The sophomores wish to acknowledge their seven additions to the Senior Varsity Football team. They are: Allen, F., Coleman, W., Coleman, T., Ford, J., Howard, W., Harrison, O., and Graham, R. One of our players R. Graham was injured in the first game of the season, therefore, he won't be able to complete the season. These players are new additions to the Senior Varsity Team and former members of the Junior Varsity Team. They exhibit the diligence, skill and accuracy which is expected of any "Bobcat". The sophomores are confident that these players will assert their maximum energies for football. We know that these players, with the aid of their mighty teammates, will represent the school and the sophomores to the best of their ability.

The Big Ones

These are the Offensive Captain Charles Haynes, and Defense Captain Thomas McGrady. Both of these players strive to give the Mighty Bobcats that extra push that's needed to win the game. They are both members of the Lake Shore senior class of the 1966-67 school term, and are well experienced in the game and know all the hooks and crooks that can be expected. They have both been long time members of the Lake Shore High Family and will be leaving us this year, carrying with them all the knowledge that they have gained to another school. But we hope that this doesn't leave the team depressed as well as the students, because there are others, we hope, who can fill their shoes. So fight on Mighty Bobcats.

What's New With The Seniors

In the sports world the seniors are holding up very well, over half of the Senior Varsity Football Squad are Seniors. Charles Haynes feels that he will have a good year, despite the loss of our first game. Charles Daniel says that he knows what he needs to work on and is going to do it. Jim Webb is convinced that he will stop anything that comes through the Bobcats' line. Henry Singleton, Freddie Ralford, Alphonzo Royals, Alphonzo McKenzie and Thomas McGrady had this to say, "We hate to disappoint you Webb, but we're not letting anything through for you." Joe Sheely, Kilip Frenny and Willie Fuller said that they are going to help their quarterback and fullback hold up the backfield.

Now for a glance at the band; the Lake Shore Marching Bobcats, under the direction of Mr. Bernard Jackson, are planning a most spectacular year. Of course, the most interesting thing is that half of the band members are "Seniors."

Bass Horn, Johnnie Ellison, French Horn, Jerome Wilford, Cornet, Marvin-Guss, Mann; Baritone, Robert Patterson; Ralph Jasper; Clarinet, Christine Sears-Caroline Coleman; Flutes, Mattie Hill-Mary Hill; Drums, Ivan Samuel; Majorities, Christine Sears, Ruby Henderson.

So Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen, and others, it will be up to you next year to make Lake Shore outstanding.

Freshmen Strive To Win Race

The freshman class, along with the sophomores, juniors and seniors, is striving to become the most recognized group of students who have ever passed through the portals of Lake Shore Jr.-Sr. High School. They are working diligently to gain the recognition that they feel they deserve.

The Florida State-Wide Achievement Test was administered to the freshmen on Wednesday and Thursday, September 21-22. They are confident that they did as well as can be expected of any freshman class.

Here's a little tip freshmen. Participate actively in organizations and other school activities and you will be well on your way to gaining the recognition you desire.

FTA Launches Membership Drive

The FTA is now in the process of launching its series of programs and other activities for the 1966-67 school year. Its first meeting is scheduled to take place within the next week.

Last year the organization participated in activities that were sponsored by other chapters. The Future Teachers of America also presented a number of programs to the student body and other community organizations. To our students at Lake Shore High, FTA is a very opportunity to improve your own character and personality. For these are the foundations of successful teaching; to explore one's interests, abilities, and skills so that he can be sure his decision to teach will be right for him is also essential. For membership contact Sharon L. Butts, Secretary.

Lake Shore Alumni To Lecture

Mrs. Priscilla Stephens Krulze, a graduate of Lake Shore High School, will be leaving on October 1 for an extended tour of Ghana. While there, Mrs. Krulze will lecture at one of the Universities.

Mrs. Krulze has informed Mr. McCurdy that she is planning to stop in Belle Glade for a few days before leaving on her tour.

Sometimes ago Mrs. Krulze visited the Lake Shore family

The Food and Nutrition, and Child Care classes, under the supervision of Mrs. Inez Mack presented an inspirational program to the senior high students, entitled "Better-Breakfast". The program included a short skit, Choral reading, Panel Discussion, and a solo from Mr. L. Williams. The purpose of the "Better-Breakfast" Month program was to attempt to make students, more so than adults, realize the need for a nutritional breakfast. The lack of a good breakfast prevents our best performance while a well balanced one provides an abundance of energy for participation during the day. We hope that the students will profit from this program and realize the importance of a good breakfast.

The Language Laboratory

A language laboratory is a room especially equipped with electronic devices so that students may hear the foreign language, record their own imitations of what they have heard, and play back the spoken material. It is equipped with a microphone, ear phones, several tape recorders, a play back machine, and facilities for changing in radio programs. Buttons and levers constitute the control panel from which the teacher directs the activities of the students.

Uses of the Language Laboratory

1. Pronunciation or Phonetic drills.
2. Corrective work in pronunciation.
3. Practice in the use of grammatical forms.
4. Cultural comprehension.
5. Dictation.
6. The teaching of songs.
7. Oral self-expression, original conversation.
8. Aural-oral testing.
9. Effectiveness of the lab is attained if the following standards are observed:
 1. The tapes and discs should be of good quality.
 2. The student must participate constantly.
 3. Multi-voiced records with different speakers are preferable.
 4. The tone of the voices should be warm and enthusiastic.
 5. Material should be played at normal speed.
 6. Material should be played in varied order to hold the attention of the listener.
 7. The purpose of each exercise, should be clear to the learner.

Nutrition III Class Prepares Lunches For National School Lunch Week

National School Lunch Week is a week designated each year for all the schools in Florida to serve the same meal on Friday. In this way the state gets an idea of how much money is spent on food. This started in 1962, in order of increasing the participation of students to eat at the school cafeteria.

The Nutrition III class, taught by Mrs. Linfield, is planning the meals for the week. Each day about four girls will help serve lunch in the cafeteria, so they can get an idea of how the lunchroom operates.

The menu is as follows:

MONDAY
Hamburgers
Baked Beans
Milk
Potato Salad
Lettuce and tomatoes
Fruit cup

TUESDAY
WEDNESDAY
Baked pork chops
Green lima beans
Macaroni and cheese
Jello with whipped cream
Toss Green Salad
THURSDAY
Fried steak with gravy
Mashed potatoes
Celery and carrot sticks
Bread and butter
Apple pie
Milk

FRIDAY
Spanish Mackerel
Sweet corn
Corn bread
Florida Fresh Salad
Sunshine Ambrosia
Butter and milk

Freedom Is Ours

"Grant us brotherhood, not only for this day but for all our years—a brotherhood not of words but of acts and deeds. We are all of us children of the earth—grant us that simple knowledge. If our brothers are oppressed, then we are oppressed. If then they hunger, we hunger. If their freedom is taken away our freedom is not secure."

Stephen Vincent Benet
An American can have a pride like a person from no other country can have, the pride of sharing common and democratic ties in his government. A real American feels kindness, respect, and love for all of his fellow Americans. If we want to keep this pride, we must all help the cause of liberty, freedom, and security, by being better Americans, and by showing respect for all those engaged in the fight for Americanism.

Rams Whip

Brahmans; 12-7

Scoring two first quarter touchdowns proved to be enough as the Golden Rams defeated the Okeechobee Brahms, 12-7.

Taking the opening kickoff, the Rams drove 63 yards to the Brahman goal with Danny Davis taking it in from the one-yard line.

Then after Charles Ruff recovered a Brahman's fumble on the 12, Gerald Watson dashed around right end for the score with 1:51 left in first quarter. Both extra point attempts failed.

The Brahms' only touchdown came on an intercepted pass by Larry Mobley in the third quarter. Ronnie White kicked the extra point.

This win gives the Rams a 2-0 record in the Western division of the Suncoast Conference.

Rams Threaten Hornets

Friday night the Rams will travel to Riviera Beach to battle with the Hornets. It will be played on the R. B. H. S. field at 8:00.

When asked if the Rams play better on the home field rather than away, Coach Burke said "They play better on the home field, but this is no excuse for not playing the same on an away field." The team rides in air-conditioned buses which are very comfortable to away games.

During this game there will not be much change in the offense; however, there will be more passing. Before entering this game there will be more practice on defensive plays and on pass protection.

Team captains for the team are undetermined for this game. During a previous game four Rams were injured, and the question arises will they be in shape for this game?

"Riviera Beach has one of the best teams that they have ever had," said Coach Burke. He also stated that the Rams need to watch out for O'Dell, H. B., and Sheuman, Q. B.

"This will be a tough game so everyone show up and support the Rams," said Coach Burke.

Player Of The Week

A second-stringer who played on the starting line-up for the first time last Friday night is this week's "Player of the Week." He is senior halfback Danny Davis.

Danny has been playing on the varsity squad this year but last Friday night was his first time on the starting lineup. He has been chosen because of his outstanding first quarter play.

Danny caught two Williams' passes. One pass was good for 33 yards and the other for 15 yards. Davis also went over from the one yard line for the first touchdown of the night. But, that touchdown was the end of the game and the football season for Davis.

He was knocked out of place and a bone fractured. This injury will keep him from playing the rest of the season.

Although he only played for a portion of the game, we feel that his great efforts during the first quarter have more than earned Danny Davis the title of "Player of the Week."

GRADUATION

Students Reveal Enthusiasm?

By Peggy Polty
Once upon a time, a football game was held between the Rams and the Falcons. As a student of B. G. H. S., I felt it my duty to express my zeal by supporting the Rams.

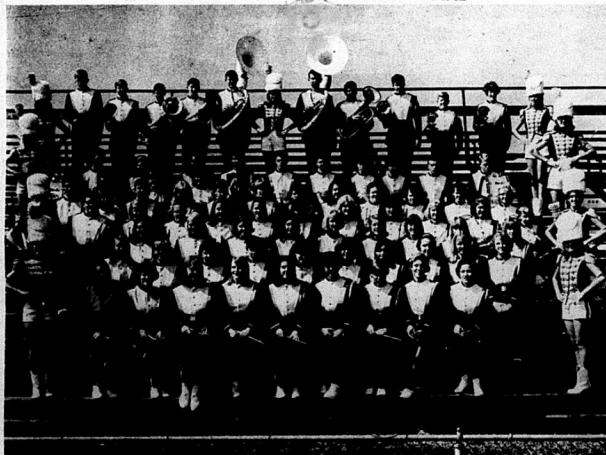

During the first quarter, the pep and spirit of the fans was overwhelming. But as the second quarter approached, the enthusiasm began to dwindle. By the third quarter, no spirit, whatsoever, was apparent. At this time, I began to ask myself, "Are these the same students who revealed so much enthusiasm during the beginning of the game? How could they let their boys down like this?"

Unlike most stories, this does not have an ending. It goes on and on with each game. In future games, will students show as much lack in spirit as before? Only time will tell.

The student who aims at nothing is almost sure to hit it.

THE BELLE GLADE HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The Belle Glade High School Band

Trumpets blasting, brasses un-pa-paging and drums hammering are the sounds that are being heard around BGHS. The cause of this is the BGHS band, which is back on the march again preparing for the all important half-time shows.

The band consists of eighty-five members. Last year they came in seventeenth out of three hundred and fifty bands in the state of Florida. Wayne Corbin is the drum major and George Richardson is the captain of the band.

The BGHS band is playing many of its old songs, but they have also added new ones. Students and adults will hear such music selections as "Yellow Bird," "Hijunana Taxi," and many more.

This year the half-time shows are of a modified military style where the band marches and plays while they form different designs and letters.

The music played at the game last Friday was taken from the main theme song in the Opera Paggiacci. The majorettes have an important job to do during the marching season. They perform at all football games and must also keep up with their band work. The majorettes are Frances Collins & Carolyn Burns, seniors; Gail Parker and Carol Williams, juniors; Sandy Winterrowd, Debbie Lane, Tina Lockhart, and Jackie baughman, sophomores; Shari Smith, freshman. Last week they performed to Blinn-Jive.

Rhodie White and Joyce Bradlow performed concert solos at the game last Friday night to the music of Javea.

The most important part of a band is its leader. Mr. Stevens has been directing our high school band for ten years. He also directs the junior high band and last week started working with a Gove Elementary Band.

Small minds discuss persons. Average minds discuss events. Great minds discuss ideas.

Sales Come To An End

Year book subscriptions have been on sale this week. Anyone who has not purchased it may see any journalism student today or tomorrow.

Since the junior high has its own yearbook now, the number of annual sales will not be as high as last year. The journalism class urges all of the high school students to purchase a subscription.

Baby Rams Crush Forest Hill

The Baby Rams won their first game of the season by crushing Forest Hill 13-0. The first touchdown came on a 2 yard run by Tommy Altman. Harry Hutto kicked for the extra point. This left the score 7-0 at the half.

During the fourth quarter Harry Hutto scored on a long 80 yard run. The attempt for the extra point failed. Dennis Council ran two touchdowns but they were both called back.

Devil Island
Most 16th century mariners believed the islands of Bermuda were inhabited by devils. Historians believe a Spanish or Portuguese explorer landed there because of a rock on the south shore with an inscription "1543".

Las Vegas East
Macau, the Portuguese Colony 40 miles west of Hong Kong, is the gambling center of the Orient. Income from the tables amounts as high as one-quarter million U. S. dollars annually, and is the prime source of foreign exchange.

Juvin Civitan Meets

The Juvin Civitan Club opened its new year with a meeting Monday, September 26.

Vice President Eddie Vandergiff opened the meeting by selecting a nominating committee of Charles Ruff and Ricky Holt to select two candidates for the office of President.

Plans for voting upon new members were discussed, and it was decided to take a vote at the next meeting.

A suitable meeting night was also talked about and it was agreed to meet the first and third Mondays of each month at 7:15.

County Commissioners Corner

E. W. "BUD" WEAVER
County Commissioner District No. 5

After a very heavy schedule of almost two months, I'm happy that I will again be in a position to bring you some of the items of interest relating to your County Commission. I would like to apologize for missing two or three issues, but newspapers have deadlines and I couldn't meet them.

The Government Study Commission formally handed over the findings and recommendations of their group to the Palm Beach County Legislative delegation last week. The GSC chairman, Mr. Philip Lewis, gave a verbal report of the recommendations to those present, and I not only feel that they have done an outstanding job, but I am really encouraged about the future of our county. If these recommendations are passed into law, Palm Beach County will be in a good position to cope with the problems that go along with the fast growth and expansion that we are experiencing now, and will increase in the future. They are needed for two more years to research the needs of the School Board and other areas of our local government that have not had the benefit of the Government Study Commission's attention and recommendations.

At the regular session of the Board on Tuesday, Oct. 4th, the much advertised public hearing, for the purpose of hearing the objections to the County's 1966-67 budget "came and went" with no objections. The only one present that requested to be heard, was a gentleman that wanted to compliment the Board for their foresight in budgeting for the continued expansion and growth of Palm Beach County's largest park, John Prince Park, west of Lake Worth. After serving for the second consecutive year on the Budget Committee, I can assure you that we have a good tight budget that does not ignore our basic needs. One point to clear up: The budget was NOT increased by 10 percent. The MILLAGE was increased by 9.8 percent to give us the need of funds. The budget is actually reduced by approximately 2.5 million dollars when compared to last year's budget. The point to remember is that there is a difference in MILLAGE AND BUDGET.

I'm pleased to see that our local Canal Hazards Safety Committee has once again been re-activated. The many needs of our area in matters of road safety cannot be ignored. The members of this committee are to be thanked and recognized for the time and effort that they will devote to our local problems, and will resolve with the assistance and support of all of our people.

AFTERTHOUGHT—Fools fall into various categories. One basic fact to remember. If you removed all of the food from the world, there would be a lot less fun and profit in it.

A Diamond Fable from ArtCarved

Once there was a man who couldn't get any for his wife's anniversary present. Then he came to see us.

We showed him some magnificent new ArtCarved diamond engagement (to replace her old one), some beautiful ArtCarved earrings, some really dazzling ArtCarved and some stunning ArtCarved dinner.

It was our mistake. We gave him too many and bought himself a bold ArtCarved tie.

We hope he had a happy anniversary.
